A VALUABLE VOICE FOR THE INDIVIDUAL INVESTOR

ScotiaMcLeod Investment Executives who participate in our Private Client Advisory Board are unique individuals, representing different types of clients, areas of expertise and geographic regions. They all have one thing in common: a desire to work with ScotiaMcLeod management to make a difference for investors.

Based on their day-to-day involvement with our clients, the Private Client Advisory Board members understand the needs and concerns of individual investors. The Board has influenced numerous initiatives at ScotiaMcLeod – from the development of new workstation technology to help Investment Executives serve clients better, to the design of new account statements that provide more tangible, user-friendly information for investors.

On behalf of our clients, ScotiaMcLeod thanks the members of our Private Client Advisory Board. Your insight and your commitment are a benefit for us all.
