Lifecycle Funds

Our top recommendation for most payroll and pre-authorized contribution plans are "Lifecycle" or "Target Date" funds. These funds automatically rebalance over time. They become more conservative (and management fees decrease) as you approach retirement. Our favourites are the Fidelity Clearpath Funds (see brochure or interactive tools).

Fidelity ClearPath 2020 Port Series B	FID702	5.1	4.6	4.3	4.8	6.0	5.2	2.17

Fidelity ClearPath Income Portfolio B	FID777	4.3	3.0	2.3	3.0	4.1	2.8	1.58

Equity Funds

We recommend equities for long term investors who are looking for returns that exceed bonds/GICs over time and can withstand equity market declines that take place from time to time.

Fidelity Canadian Large Cap Sr B	FID231	8.7	4.1	3.1	4.9	10.3	4.6	2.30
Scotia Canadian Index	BNS381	6.1	5.5	6.3	4.3	5.9	8.9	1.01
RBC Canadian Equity Income Adv	RBF762	6.4	5.3	6.8	4.3	10.2	8.8	1.85
IA Clarington Canadian Small Cap A	CCM520	-5.0	-0.4	1.6	1.8	8.8	8.9	2.92
Fidelity Canadian Opportunities Sr B	FID215	13.7	9.5	6.9	7.4	8.7	6.0	2.28

Balanced Funds

People selecting from this group generally want to hold more conservative RRSP investments. Balanced funds generally have lower risk than equity funds, because they hold a blend of stocks and bonds. Ideal for an all-in-one investment or to balance existing portfolios:

Bond Funds

As you approach retirement, bond funds can provide stable income. However, yields have been so low lately that higher yielding bonds or GICs might be a better option for any lump sum purchase:

Fidelity Canadian Short-Term Bond Sr B	FID285	3.6	1.9	0.8	1.2	1.8	1.4	1.15
PIMCO Monthly Income A	PMO005	5.4	2.5	3.9	4.1	0.0	1.9	1.40
TD Canadian Bond - A	TDB306	9.0	4.8	1.7	2.8	3.4	3.7	1.10
Scotia Canadian Income A	BNS377	9.0	5.0	2.0	2.8	3.4	4.2	1.31
PH&amp;N Bond A	RBF7110	8.5	4.6	1.7	3.1	3.6	3.8	1.05

Short Term (Cash Equivalents)

Ideal for clients considering withdrawing from their RRSP in the short-term (e.g. for a first-time homebuyers withdrawal). The following are historical yields. For current yields, see the Scotia Mutual Funds price page or Scotia High Interest Saving Account page:

Scotia Money Market A	BNS357	1.2	1.0	0.8	0.6	0.4	0.1	0.77
BNS High Interest Savings Account	DYN6000	1.60

Global Funds

Remember, Canadian markets make up only 3% of world equities. Ensure you have exposure to the other 97%. Our favourites include:
